The Flying Alligator (or Huge American Food)

The other day (August of '98), I, the guy who hardly ever leaves my office, unbelievably took a trip to America- all by myself!

THE FURTHEST I'VE EVER BEEN IS SENDAI AND OSAKA. I'VE NEVER LEFT HONSHU*!

The reason for my journey was because I was invited to be the guest at Otakon 5 in Washington D.C.

I was met at the airport by a bunch of guys...

EHH ?!

Including Mr. Kimura, the president of a manga translating company, Studio Ironcat.

WHO COULD THIS BE?

LET'S GO GET YOUR LUGGAGE!

THIS IS IT RIGHT HERE!

SINCE I DIDN'T HAVE A CAMERA OR OTHER RECORDING DEVICE, I DREW EVERYTHING FROM MEMORY THEREFORE, I AM NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR THE DETAILS.

*coffee comes in tiny cups with no refills and it's really expensive!

I will talk about Otakon some other time

MY GOD!

But let me tell you about the humongous food!

THE TRAY WAS HUGE TOO!

I ordered a Hamburger, soup and salad because I'm used to them coming in small portions.

COFFEE CAME IN BIG MUGS!*

EVERYTHING COMES DOUBLE THE SIZE HERE!

Here, Iced Tea comes in giant liter sized glasses!

LOTS AND LOTS!

22 1/2 24 oz

AND THEN THEY CAME WITH FREE REFILLS!

I'm 6'1" and 220lbs, but I looked ordinary next to all the really huge Americans!

VIDEO1

OTAKU

EVEN THE AMERICAN OTAKUS ARE FAT

Next to the giant guys, there were these tiny palm-sized girls.

SUSI

I'M NOT KIDDING EITHER!!

 Other than water and Japanese tea, there is no such thing as free refills.

By the way, I hardly ever make any phone calls. But on this 6 day trip.

HELLO, MOTHER? YEAH, COULD YOU UNPLUG MY RICE COOKER?

I made this one phone call before I took off from Narita.

MR. ARD HATES THE PHONE HE ONCE BOUGHT A $5 PHONE CARD WHICH LASTED HIM 4 YEARS!
